SUBJECT : Invitation to the NAMSAs Symposium on Force Protection & Defence Against Terrorism (DAT).
16-17 March 2010, Capellen, Luxembourg

1. NAMSAs is organising at its premises in Capellen, Luxembourg on 16 and 17 March 2010, an exploratory meeting to investigate potential mutual benefits between NATO/PTP States and NAMSAs in the Force Protection/Defense Against Terrorism domain.
2. The first day morning will be dedicated to the presentation of NAMSAs activities in general and to NAMSAs experience and expertise in Defence Against Terrorism/Force Protection in particular. NATO DAT Programme of Work recent revised strategy, aiming at identifying and fielding relevant technologies, will conclude this morning session.
3. The first day afternoon session will be dedicated to industry briefings on the initiatives C-IED (Counter-Improvised Explosive Devices); CBRN (Chemical Biological Radiological and Nuclear); EOD (Explosive Ordnance Disposal), ISR (Intelligence, Surveillance and Technology), Protection of Critical Infrastructure and NLC (Non Lethal Capabilities).
4. NAMSAs logistics support proposal to Nations will be discussed in the second day. Collective Procurement Approach and capability in responding to urgent requirements will also be presented.
5. In addition you are invited to communicate, prior to the symposium, additional discussion items which you would like to be further explored during the meeting. This will allow NAMSAs to arrange in advance and to adapt the symposium to the Nation's needs. Please provide your inputs and comments directly to the primary POC (see 7a).

6. Please find attached:
